

CHARACTER TRAITS #1

Name:

Date:

1. READ THE STORY

Think about the character traits in the text as you read!

Carl had a very hard time telling the truth. He didn't want to lie but sometimes it just happened. He was known for being very dishonest.

One day, Carl dropped his homework in a puddle and it was ruined. When it was time to turn homework in, he told his teacher Mrs. Joyce, what happened. She didn't believe him because Carl often lied about not doing his homework.

He was sad his teacher didn't believe him. He realized he needed to work hard to be more honest in the future.

2. ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

Type your answers in each gray box. Use evidence from the text to support your answers.

1a. Who is the main character?

1b. What does the main character do in the story?

CHARACTER TRAITS #2

Name:

Date:

1. READ THE STORY

Think about the character traits in the text as you read!

Mia hated getting up in the morning. She was known in her family to be very grumpy. She snapped at her brother, glared at her sister and wouldn't talk to her parents. Mia was hard to be around in the morning.

One Sunday, she was even more grumpy than usual. Her brother asked her to pass the cereal and she snapped at him, "Get it yourself!" Her brother started to cry.

Mia's mom told her she understood mornings were hard for her but it was not okay to talk to her family that way. Mia felt guilty and said she was sorry to her brother.

2. ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

Type your answers in each gray box. Use evidence from the text to support your answers.

2a. Who is the main character?

2b. What does the main character do in the story?

CHARACTER TRAITS #3

Name:

Date:

1. READ THE STORY

Think about the character traits in the text as you read!

Zane was a very funny boy. He liked to make his friends laugh. He really tried to make them laugh when they were having a hard day or feeling down. Zane thought he could make others feel better with a good joke.

Zane's best friend Matt was having bad day. Nothing was going right and he was very sad. Zane noticed and told Matt a great joke. Matt laughed and felt much better. Zane felt proud when he helped his friends feel better.

2. ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

Type your answers in each gray box. Use evidence from the text to support your answers.

3a. Who is the main character?

3b. What does the main character do in the story?

CHARACTER TRAITS #4

Name:

Date:

1. READ THE STORY

Think about the character traits in the text as you read!

Raj was very generous. He was always thinking about how he could help others. If his friends needed something, Raj was always willing to give it to them.

One day at lunch, Raj noticed his friend Alex didn't have a lunch. Raj asked Alex about it and Alex said he forgot his lunch at home. Without even thinking about it, Raj took half of his lunch and gave it to Alex. Alex was thankful Raj was so generous.

2. ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

Type your answers in each gray box. Use evidence from the text to support your answers.

4a. Who is the main character?

4b. What does the main character do in the story?

CHARACTER TRAITS #5

Name:

Date:

1. READ THE STORY

Think about the character traits in the text as you read!

Evelynn was a very kind girl. She always helped her friends and family, volunteered at the animal shelter and read books to younger kids at her school. Being kind was just a part of who she was.

One day on the playground, Evelynnn saw her friend Marissa crying. Evelynnn said, “Marissa, why are you so sad?” Marissa told her no one would play with her and she was having a rough day. Evelynnn hugged Marissa and told her they could play together anytime Marissa wanted. Marissa felt very grateful to have Evelynnn as a friend.

2. ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

Type your answers in each gray box. Use evidence from the text to support your answers.

5a. Who is the main character?

5b. What does the main character do in the story?

CHARACTER TRAITS #6

Name:

Date:

1. READ THE STORY

Think about the character traits in the text as you read!

Brynna became annoyed easily. She especially got annoyed by her little sister Lily. Her little sister was always following her around and copying her. When Brynna would tell her mom that Lily was annoying her, Lily would cry and pout. It really hurt Lily's feelings.

Brynna was feeling extra annoyed one day. She'd finally had enough and yelled, "Go away Lily and leave me alone!" Lily ran to her room crying.

Brynna's mom sat Brynna down and explained to her that Lily loved her very much and just wanted to be like her. Brynna made an effort to not get so annoyed with her little sister Lily.

2. ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

Type your answers in each gray box. Use evidence from the text to support your answers.

6a. Who is the main character?

6b. What does the main character do in the story?